

and this constant waterfall of rain that's washing down the black pane unfocussing the weightless sulphured mirror-scene of plastic ketchup bottles grouped on floating half-light tables and our faces blurred by steam from thick frothed mugs of coffee somehow ratifies -

I see again two figures stood

- some distance apart -

in the soft grey implosion of Forster Square station on New Year's Eve.

Then one, that is me, starts to walk;

I walk head bowed among the ruins,
the fallen roofs and columns strewn,
and you watch me abstractedly.

CHARNEL GROUND

[It's late afternoon;
and if I close my eyes tight

I could almost believe in that cliché-vision, long-lost Midland Railway's dim bustle and roar,
shiny red trains bringing fire to a smoke-filled hall.

But my eyes are not closed:
a new road skews down hard across the vacated waste of the railway yard and above you a pale moon rises low in a thin blue porcelain sky.

It's just ghosts and old dead dreams out there;
and if eyes that once saw with mine won't see this awesome sky bleed a lilac bruise over Ilkley Moor or the rush and froth of the Wharfe through the valley at dusk then -]

I look at you now, and feel far inside the tart melancholic
acid-stab of recognition subside into nothing on recall. Phase-out.

From a cafe in Wakefield we walk down now past the cathedral and into the rush-hour bus-crawl, down Westgate
to the station,
one-by-one.

FEBRUARY 1991

- * - SOLD OUT
- + - COMING LATER...

Please note that from SARAH 41 onwards we'll be gradually introducing an entire new world of fantasy characters - but don't worry, all our records are still guaranteed to be riotous fun from start to finish - addictive family entertainment to bring out "the worst" in everyone! Especially when huge red fire-breathing dragons suddenly swoop down towards you with a roar as you whirl round, sword-in-hand, knee-deep in gore and wasted limbs! (CD versions only.)

Long-term admirers of our more traditional product will meanwhile be delighted by the re-packaging of some of our more popular releases in special "Collectors' Edition" boxes. These consist of an attractive inlaid mahogany casing, 2'x2'x2', lined throughout, and fitted with special retaining clips to hold the records stylishly yet safely without damage to sleeves (optional for The Field Mice). Retractable castors make for easy movement about the house - no more struggling from room to room with that precious piece of vinyl wedged awkwardly between thumb and forefinger! - but fold away neatly for easy storage - the boxes stack into an attractive free-standing unit, destined to be a talking-point at any social gathering! Also our unique MAGIGLIDE Suspension System allows the boxes to be suspended freely in any household location, and yet to then be moved "as if by magic," to the delight and astonishment of all your friends. The latter will also be impressed by our Special Introductory Offer of a signed video of the lads from The Farm modelling the latest Scally gear, and the lassie from The Farm modelling a short tight dress.

We're also re-packaging some of our less popular releases in a variety of special "Bonus" packs. These consist mainly of a small brown envelope containing a f5 note tucked inside the inner sleeve.

"SARAH RECORDS - Forwards Into The Nineties." And remember, all SARAH products now involve at least one heroic battle against alien monsters at the edge of the universe.*
