Another of those "serious" inserts which occasionally disrupt and sully the poetic flow like a bloodied sponge tossed into a babbling Highland stream, I'm afraid.

For, despite valiant efforts by the likes of Wiiija, Clawfist and Elastica* to champion the 7" as an aesthetic artifact rather than a niche-marketing gimmick, CDs really have taken over; even our CD singles now outsell the vinyl. We actually press pretty much 50/50 but, because TOTAL sales haven't gone up much, that just means sales for each format are in effect HALF the old vinyl sales meaning (A) things go out of stock a lot more quickly and (B) the economics of re-pressing are even more scary, especially given shops increasingly won't touch old stuff.

And that means that in future when things run out we won't automatically re-press - which is why we've re-typed the above list to show record-by-record what formats are available, e.g. Even As We Speak's last single (SARAH 79) has sold out on 7" so, because re-pressing isn't really viable, it's now available ONLY on CD. Sad, but... Life.

* we, of course, gave up and sold out years ago at SARAH 38, when the first Silverfish EP was but a gleam in Gary Wiiija's eye - a 12" sized gleam, I seem to remember, but that's probably just False Memory Syndrome due to not quite all of my brain-cells having been destroyed by the wild purging fire of the Huggy Nation. I get it a lot ...
