olence!!!

e....

Simply,

it exists because people like you exist.

- so stupid and jaded and sweetly bereft of all wit and - what's that word?

IM-AG-I-NA-TION,

so old and confused,
you dismally dredge up the dregs of
some longago un-mispent youth,
and we'd rather like

to mock you rather a lot;

it would be FUN.

You're a JERK, basically,

we made this record specially for you.

It plays at 45rpm to remind you
of something called POPmusic.

It's 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ " across to remind you

of something called POPmusic.

It crackles and fizzes and

fucks up your needle to remind you
of something called POPmusic.

It crackles and fizzes because...

who cares.

It was recorded in a bedroom, of course.

It's called "ANORAK CITY", of course.

It's designer-made for your snappy critique

GO ON,

squiggley wiggley

I dare...

Ah, we love you, honest we do...

We think you're a real fuck-up.

Listen; so it wrecks after 6 plays but that's why it was made.

Consider; you have in front of you

pile upon pile of glassy-eyed glossed-up muck, indestructable New Release plastic pollution

awesome in its awfulness,

meaningless as your job...

And so's this flexi!!!

But this flexi knows... it's a Total Pop Artifact!!!

Just hold it up and gaze in fond loving wonder,

don't bother to FUCKING PLAY IT,

or you've missed the whole lovely point...

You'll be calling us Luddites next!

It's the most important single of the year

because it's so necessary because it's so utterly POINTLESS, and that's why we love it.

It's NOISY...

ANOTHER SUNNY DAY are from Penzance. That much is true.

One day we'll show you their proper songs.

This record is affectionately dedicated to James Brown.

Either of them.
