leaflet no.4 - october 1996

Yes, I'm afraid that really is what Blueboy look like these days. No wonder the others all left, and Paul looks like he's just about to.

Anyway, enough banter, I've something important to tell you. Namely that we're moving, forsaking our West Country roots for the mad bright lights of the Big City. Except that's a lie, I don't have West Country roots, I was born in Leytonstone, E11; and I reckon it's time to go back and find out what's been happening in my absence.

What this means is that (A) we'll start getting loads of brilliant reviews as a result of spending all night and day snogging journalists and (B) we've got a new address and phone number. Unfortunately, for various complicated reasons, we don't actually know what either of them are yet. HOWEVER - if you ring the hotline below, you'll get a recorded message telling you what the new phone number is and, if you then ring that new number, one of our friendly and courteous staff will tell you what our new address is. Actually, it'll just be me, as I don't have any friendly and courteous staff - just lots of time in which to brood darkly and dream. Finally, for added confusion, the new phone number will itself change in a couple of months - but we'll get the recorded message updated when it does. Phew. Incidentally, stuff sent to the Bristol PO Box will be forwarded by the post-office - but only till the end of the year, so don't get carried away.
